

David Dymont

David has been involved with the Canadian International Council's National Capital Branch before and during his term as President from 2013 to 2016.

Dr. Dymont is the author of Doing the Continental: A New Canadian-American Relationship, currently in its second printing, selected by the Toronto Library Foundation as a significant recent Canadian book, and a Quill & Quire bestseller.

At Carleton University he's a senior research associate in the Centre on North American Politics and Society and teaches Canadian foreign policy most recently at the Norman Paterson School of International Affairs.

A past director of the Parliamentary Internship Programme, he has served as a senior policy adviser at Global Affairs Canada, and on the staff of the Governor General of Canada.

Opinion pieces by David have been in the Toronto Star, the Globe and Mail and other leading newspapers, he has been on CTV, CBC, BBC, and in French on Radio-Canada. An Ontario-Quebec Exchange Fellow, he received his doctorate from the Université de Montréal.